PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an honest, concerned and reliable person who likes to work with people and enjoy the stimulation of being part of my surroundings.

Am a hard worker, can say am full of enthusiasm, energy and eager to learn something new or to improve my current skills, also enjoy facing new challenges to improve my knowledge. In other words, education is my strength, because with that than one can easily adapt.

Punctual, organized, passionate and a motivated person (especially practically learning something new), who is able to relate with people who are in charge.

From the work field I experienced previously, I have learnt how improve and accommodate my communication skills towards people, in that also saw the difference: how to communicate between clients/customers than managers/client managers. Aim to submit all tasks handed on due time.

Acquired feedback on how services are important to a customer and has an effective impact to the business image.

Interests

I am a sport person, enjoy soccer and basketball. Prefer following soccer than to play it and then I play basketball, even playing for a club.

During my extra time, and since am an indoor person mostly I am into movies and when I do go out, I like to travel a lot; to different places.

Soft Skills

- Excellent communication with my surrounding
 - Prompt to instructions
 - Basic website developer
 - Good financial operation
 - Adaptability
